

Dear Keith Johnson,

Thanks for coming into our class and sharing your childhood story with us. At first, I didn't think that you can relate to any of the students in the class, but you surprised me because you do relate to some of us in some part. You did relate to me and thanks to you I made a couple of changes and the changes that I have made have helped me in a big way. I just wanted to say thanks again. You have inspired me.

Your friend,
